

Educational Classes at the One-Day Session (8:00AM—9:30AM)

Rev. Dr. Lee Earl: Rest in the Storm by Kirk Byron Jones

This workshop is designed to inspire and inform pastors of the need to develop a “Self-care Strategy” that will improve their effectiveness and quality of life. It is designed to equip pastors and preachers to enhance and extend their ministry by developing and embracing spiritual and physical disciplines.

Rev. Charles Hall: Be A Prayer Warrior-Fight and Protect Battle Plan

This workbook is designed to teach Christians how to utilize the power of prayer to create a battle plan to defend ourselves, our families, our churches, our communities, and our way of life from the unending and continuous attacks from the powers of darkness that are obliterating the fiber of our moral society and values. It is intended to help believers better understand the dynamics of the battle and how we are to engage the enemy by calling on and using the power of God to secure victory in our lives.

Rev. Dr. Donna Taylor: Financial Literacy in the African American Church

This workshop will explore the increasing demands upon African Americans to make complex financial decisions such as planning for retirement. It will examine critical issues that will impact our economic survival. It will explore the historical and cultural context for financial literacy in the twenty-first century. Anyone who desires to enhance their financial future will benefit from this workshop.

Rev. Dr. Clevester Hawkins: Scratch Where They Itch

This workshop will explore the role of member motivation to their active participation. Dr. Hawkins will discuss the importance of scratching where the members itch. It will empower church leaders to develop strategies that will enhance and increase church ministry participation by providing opportunities aligned to the members’ values and interests. It is designed for local church leaders who want to release and engage its parishioners in active ministry participation.

Ms. Tracee Lydia Garner: Pack Light: Thoughts for the Journey

This workshop will examine the opportunities to experience the grandeur that each day presents. It will encourage you to reflect deeper, ask why you act or respond in the manner you do and benefit from teachable moments. It will sensitize you to the possibilities between your initial choices and final outcomes. This workshop will help anyone who wants to seize the moments presented to them each and every day and learn from each of them.

Rev. Dr. Daniel Brown: Church Planting

This workshop will discuss the step by step replication of how God empowered Rev. Dr. Daniel Brown to plant Agape Household of Faith. It will focus on Dr. Brown’s personal encounter with the Lord and the assurance he received regarding his desire to plant a church. It will highlight the importance of having an enlarged vision and a spiritual anointing. This workshop will be especially helpful for individuals who desire to step out on faith and plant a local church.

Min. Gerald McCray: Israel and The Jew Make the Bible True: From Abel to Armageddon

This workshop will examine how Israel and the Jew make the Bible true. It will highlight why God chose to use Israel and the Jewish people to display His power in front of the pagan nations of the world. This workshop is especially helpful for anyone who wants to have a better understanding of the relationship between God and His chosen people.

Sis. Melanie Ray: Fundamentals of Mime

This workshop for youth and youth leaders will introduce the fundamental concepts and techniques of mime. It will also provide a general understanding of what mime is.
