

NVBA Call for Missional Response to Jackson Water Crisis

NVBA Family have an opportunity to assist our brothers and sisters in Jackson, Mississippi, who are experiencing a water crisis.

“Lott Carey, in collaboration with National Baptist Convention of America, is responding to the water crisis in Jackson, Mississippi,” said Executive Secretary-Treasurer Rev. Emmett Dunn. “The situation is dire and requires urgent response. We are calling on all churches and our partners to meet this immediate need.” Jackson has suffered longstanding water and other emergencies. According to the Washington Post, Jackson’s water problems have disproportionately affected the city’s low-income, Black communities.

To join in the collaborative response, give through Lott Carey, www.lottcarey.org/donate/ and place Jackson Water Crisis” in the Giving Initiative line.

Then the King shall say ..., "I was thirsty, and you give me a drink. ...
Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me." (Matt 25:33-40)
